WELCOME!

Dear Exhibitors and Trainers:

We are thrilled you have chosen our unique event and we extend a warm welcome. The historic show grounds, nestled in bucolic Chagrin Valley—yet close to Cleveland, one of the nation's hottest cities for entertainment, sports and food (according to Forbes Magazine) provides an unparalleled experience. You'll ride in the hoof prints of the greatest equestrians of all times—George Morris, Rodney Jenkins, Mary and Frank Chapot, Michael Matz, Steve Stephens, Bernie Traurig, Joe Fargis, Candice King, Margie Engle, Kent Farrington—and the list goes on. Why? The Cleveland Grand Prix is unprecedented as the Western Hemisphere's first show jumping grand prix. For this distinction and other contributions to the sport and industry, the Chagrin Hunter Jumper Classic received the coveted designated USEF Heritage Competition. With an intimate capacity of 600 horses, yet prize money totaling close to $200,000, a trip to Cleveland from your home stable or on your way around the circuit pays off. Unbelievable hospitality—from affordable lodging to amazing parties, fun classes, hilarious activities, and a Midwest welcome from our volunteers and show management—will make you want to come back for more. And we sure hope you do. From our charities, board members and the Ohio equestrian community, thank you for considering our show.
